ABSTRACT

This bibliography contains citations to general and specific works on Polish Americans, their cultural and social roots, their history, literature and arts, and ethnic identity. A series of anthologies which deal with adaptation problems and the acculturation of Polish American groups are included. There are also references that provide guidelines and strategies for integrating Polish studies into the public school curriculum. A listing of audiovisual instructional materials, and of Polish American and Polish language periodicals, newspapers, and journals is included. Bibliographies, booklists, guides, and directories that may be of interest to various Polish American groups are listed. A directory of Polish studies resource personnel and of public school curriculum officials is provided. (Author/AM)
